

Financial Document Templates

Structure and sample wording for the sponsor affidavit, bank statement cover letter, and related financial documents - adapt these to your real facts, don't copy them verbatim.

1. Sponsor Affidavit / Declaration of Support

- Sponsor's full name, relationship to you, and occupation
- A clear statement of financial commitment - exact amount, currency, and duration covered
- Source of the sponsor's funds (salary, business income, savings)
- Sponsor's signature, date, and contact details
- List of supporting documents attached (bank statements, salary slips, tax returns)

2. Bank Statement Cover Letter

- Account holder's name and relationship to the applicant
- Statement period covered, and confirmation the required balance was held throughout
- A one-line explanation of any large or unusual deposits
- Bank's official letterhead, stamp, and signature

3. Salaried Sponsor's Document Set

- ☐ Salary slips (last 6 months)
- ☐ Employment letter on company letterhead
- ☐ Income tax returns (last 2-3 years)
- ☐ Form 16 or equivalent tax document
- ☐ Bank statements showing salary credits

4. Self-Employed / Business Owner Sponsor's Document Set

- ☐ Business registration documents
- ☐ Income tax returns (last 3 years)
- ☐ Audited financial statements
- ☐ Bank statements (business and personal)
- ☐ CA certificate of income
- ☐ GST returns (if applicable)

5. Education Loan Document Set

- ☐ Loan sanction letter from a recognized bank, showing the approved amount
- ☐ Signed loan agreement with terms
- ☐ Disbursement schedule
- ☐ Collateral documents (if the loan is secured)

Loan Strategy

Even if you can afford your studies without a loan, having a sanction letter adds credibility - it shows a second, independently-verified funding source rather than relying on savings alone.
